Latest News and Updates

May, 2021

Hello,

It's been a busy start to the spring. I was flattered to be interviewed by a vlogger in France. It was my first international interview! You can watch the video here.

I'm also excited to be launching a new Facebook business page - Facebook.com/MitchCasterFineArt. Please take a look. If you can Like and Share the page, I'd appreciate it. I also just learned I'll be in a new Oil Painters of America national exhibition in June, with my painting "Beach Bum."

Also this month, I'll be in the National Oil & Acrylic Painters' Society "Best of America Small Paintings Exhibition" at Principle Gallery in Charleston, South Carolina. And in honor of small paintings, I'm working on a new page for my website. (Scroll down for a sneak peek).

And with travel becoming more of a possibility, I'm again featuring some travel paintings from past international trips that I've been fortunate enough to take.

Mitch

P.S. Save the date — After being in the very first Greenwood Village Art on the Green outdoor art festival last year in Colorado, I will again have a booth this year, on September 11th & 12th. I hope to see you there!

Upcoming National Exhibition

Quinlan Visual Arts Center, Gainesville, Georgia
June 10 - August 7, 2021

The show assembles the finest display of approximately 300 representational oil paintings. The focus in the jurying process was to select paintings that show the highest quality in draftsmanship, color, and composition, emphasizing a diversity in representational style and subject matter.
