Hello and Happy Summer!

I sometimes hear from people who say they can't purchase artwork because it's too expensive. Yes, some pieces can be pricey. But I assure you there are wonderful, affordable options.

Small, or miniature, paintings are great choices for the new or seasoned collector - or anyone just seeking an attractive piece for a favorite spot in their home. You don't need a huge wall to hang a painting you love! Check out the new Small Paintings Page on my website for some ideas.

Sketches are another affordable and interesting option. I love drawing, and have been sketching for as long as I can remember. In fact, I've been a life-drawing instructor at the Art Students League of Denver for the last 27 years. Below, I'm featuring a few of my sketches, and you can see more samples on the Drawings Page on my website. If you would like to see additional charcoals, pastels, ink sketches or pencil drawings, please feel free to contact me or one of my Galleries. Those of you in Colorado can also visit my booth at Art on the Green, Sept. 11 and 12, at Curtis Park in Greenwood Village.

I hope you enjoy this beautiful time of year.

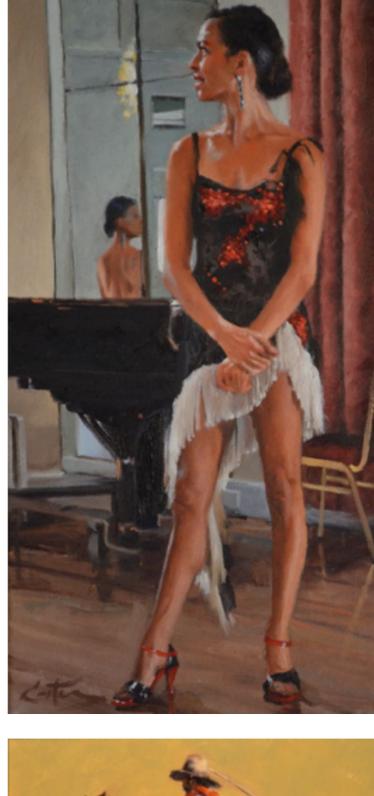

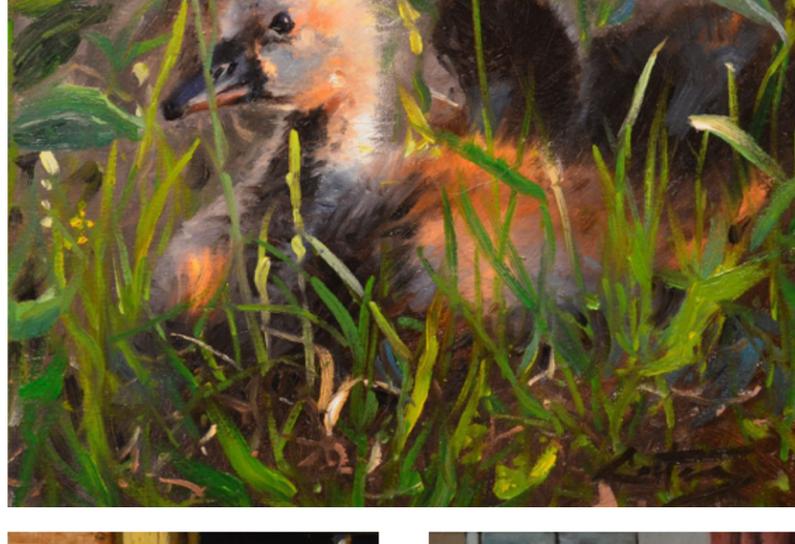

Mitch

P.S. Thanks to all of you who "Liked" my new Facebook business page. It's off to a good start!
