Happy September!

We've all come to appreciate the value of being in-person. Paintings are no different! Many people tell me how much better it is to see a painting in person, rather than through a photograph or on the internet. The textures, the brushstrokes and the details all come to life.

Good news! If you're in the Denver area, you can see my work in person this weekend at Curtis Center for the Arts' Art on the Green. I've also donated a piece for a fundraising event on Sept. 17, 99 Pieces of Art on the Wall. If you live in the Wichita area, you can see one of my pieces at the Oil Painters of America Western Regional Exhibition. Or, you can visit one of the fine galleries around the country carrying my work.

Below are samples of some new works and some of my recent sales. Enjoy!
