Happy New Year!

Some great news to share as we begin 2022: I will return to the Colorado Governor's Art Show and Sale. It's a real honor to be included in this show, endorsed by Governor Polis and featuring only selected Colorado fine artists. The show benefits Loveland and Thompson Valley Rotary Clubs' charitable projects and causes. After the Opening Night Gala on Friday, April 22, the show will run April 23-May 21. Save the dates!

Here in the newsletter, I'm beginning a series this month that will shine a light on the wonderful galleries around the country that carry my work. We'll begin with Marta Stafford Fine Art in Marble Falls, Texas... see below.

If you would like to find out more about my works in Marta's gallery, you can call her at 830.693.999. For information about another gallery or a piece from my website, contact me at info@mitchcasterfineart.com. And stay tuned for information on the series of six landscapes from Rocky Mountain National Park and the Canadian Rockies that I just completed.

I hope you have an amazing, safe, happy, healthy and prosperous new year!

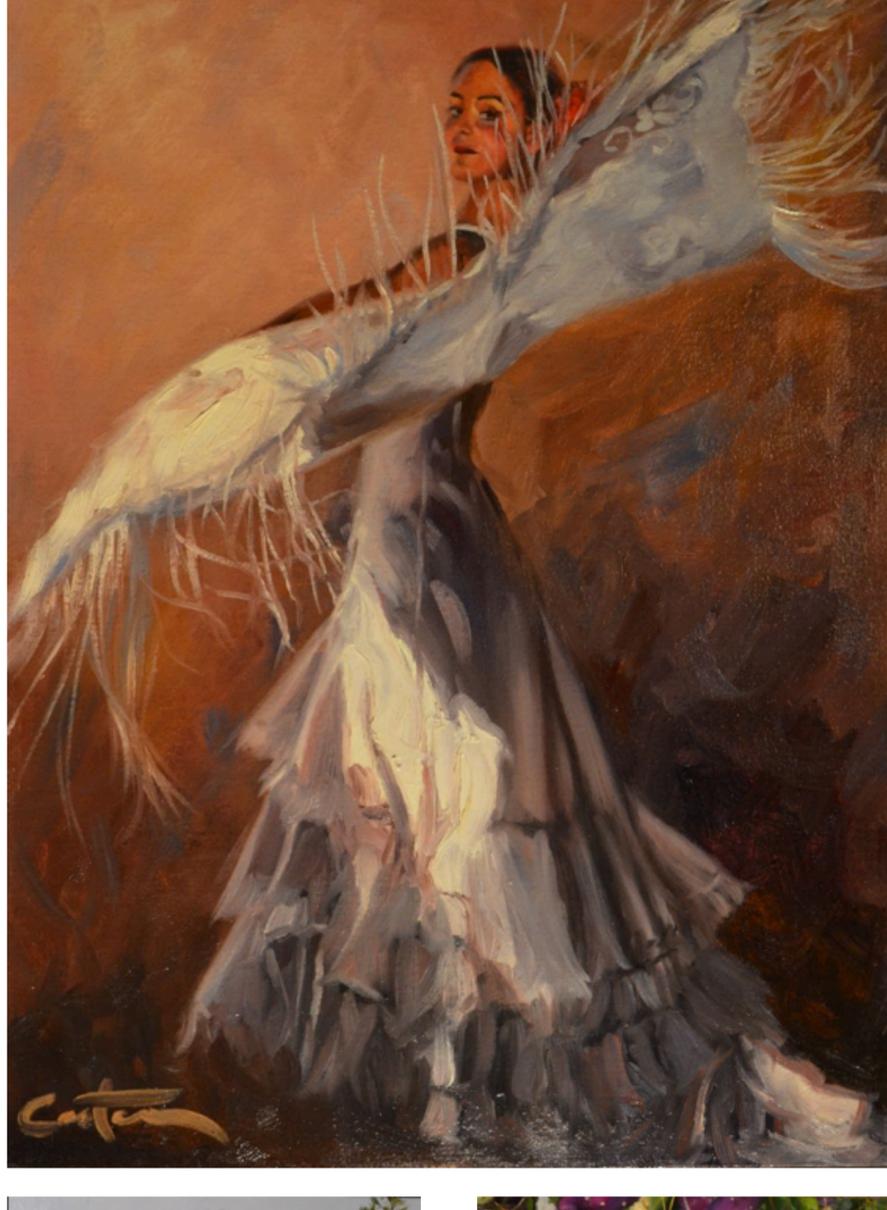

Mitch

Gallery Spotlight - Marta Stafford Fine Art

Marta Stafford was working at Riverbend Fine Art in Marble Falls, Texas, until the gallery closed when the owner passed away. Marta stepped in and purchased the gallery, fulfilling a lifelong dream of owning her own gallery. Now when her husband says "Oh, you have to go to work today?" she says, "No, I GET to go to work today!"

Her gallery, located on Main Street in the beautiful Texas Hill Country of Marble Falls, is a warm, inviting space in a 1930 former bank lobby. With abundant windows and high ceilings, natural light permeates the gallery, creating an open and airy interior that allows the artwork to shine.

The gallery was recently featured in Country Roads Magazine (read article here) and one of my pieces that is in her gallery was recently featured in Fine Art Connoisseur (read article here). Here are some of my paintings currently available at the gallery.
